

At present, a 100 year confidentiality rule precludes the Irish Government from making the 1926 census available to the public until 2026.

CIGO (The Council of Irish Genealogical Organisations) is running a petition to encourage the Government to release this 1926 Census early. Its availability would be of enormous value to all who are researching their Irish Family History.

Please add your name to the CIGO Petition